Ziman’s Debut Also Cracks the USA Today and Amazon Bestseller Lists

One of the nation’s leading advocates for at-risk children, Daphna Edwards Ziman is the founder and chairperson of CUN (Children Uniting Nations), the chairperson of ABC LOVE (Adoption Brings Children Love) and a board member for HIPPY (Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters). She has received numerous accolades including the Jacqueline Kennedy Award from JFK University, the Women of Achievement Award from the North American Council for Adoptable Children, the Uniting Children of the World Award from the Child Welfare League of America, the Peace & Tolerance Lifetime Achievement Award for Child Advocacy, the Spirit of Compassion Award from the Aviva Family and Children Services, the Spirit of Life Award from LA’s City of Hope and the Blue Skies Award from the Penny Lane Center.

Her writing of The Gray Zone was inspired by her desire to expose tragic instances of foster children compelled to prostitution.
